Application for Individual Membership of IHN

Individuals working in the field of haemovigilance or with a professional interest and who reside in countries in which the haemovigilance system is a fully paid up member of IHN, are eligible to become individual members of IHN with no further cost. The application requires approval of the OCP (Official Contact Person) of that country.

Please complete you details below, and then email this form to the OCP of your country for approval.

The OCP will then endorse the application by typing their name (or inserting their electronic signature) on the form and emailing it back to the Secretary of IHN from their own email address, as registered with IHN for the role of OCP.
